YE AERIE

1968

More than her duty she's done for us
Without a single thought of bother or fuss
She guided us through those crucial times
By giving advice, not making our minds
And with her experience and lending hand
We managed to successfully fulfill our plans
But though we've gone and on she stays
To aid some others along their way
She will be imbedded to the end of time
Deep in our hearts and in our minds.

Dates To Remember

Senior Will

We the distinguished members of the graduating class of 1968 being of the highest intellect and solemn nature, do bequeath our last published writings of our long history at Belle Center, to the many unfortunates in these sacred halls.

First of all to our understudies, the juniors, we leave what's left of our dilapidated seats and desks in study hall. Then, to the faculty, goes all of our devoted attention and all of our on-the-spot answers.

At this time we shall proceed by reading individual inheritances.

First of all Helen Henry, better known as "Barney", leaves her magnificent go-go dancing ability at Skinnies to Janice Gossard. Linda Banta leaves her large brain and small body to ex-senior Bob Bensman. Elaine Kloetzly leaves her perfect bowling average to Beth Zimmerman. Jackie Beatty wills her excellent Ping Pong skill to Eleanor Milroy. Sandy Downey wills her wide selection of wrap-around skirts and white blouses to Kathy Forsythe. Dave Phillips and Donna Bradford leave their close relationship with each other to Kathy Pope and Pete Patterson. Julia McMillen wills her quietness and her way with words to Jeri Oder. Beverly Johnson's lady-like poise, grace, and charm goes to Barb Gillen. Jeff Kerns leaves his dictorial way with Senior Class business to Mrs. Cooper and his deepest sympathy to the Junior Class President, Dan Johnston. Chris Schrader, Steve Phillips, and Gary Stevens leaves their excellent ways of handling alcoholic beverages without the dizzy side affects to none other than Joe (Otis) Matthews. They also send Joe their best wishes and hope he has a speedy recovery from the brutal attack of a stop sign. Holly Hughes leaves her perfect coordination when it comes to cheerleading to Susan Odd-Bod Bach. Louie the Lion Linson and Jeff Busche, alias Mugsy Bugsy, leave their Charles atlas body building magazines to Tim pip-squeak Huber. Nancy Collum wills all of her parking places to Bev Miracle since she already knows where they are. Karen Bloom leaves her bee-hive hairdo to Vicki Bates. John "Walt" Butcher leaves his way with the State Fuzz to speedy Ann Keller. Don Williams leaves his last name to Rita Ray. Jan Moffitt gets Marsha Dunlaps extraordinary way with words. Roger Grunden wills his unbeatable boxing ability to Mike Fleece. Paul Jones leaves his cute comments and witicizims to Margaret Ginn. Steve Kerns lovingly leaves his hugs and kisses to his secret love, Penny McMillen. Richard Stevens gets all of Dwain Kerns old excuses for not coming to school. Mike McCarren leaves his weedy way to Dennis Bensman. Jeff Busche leaves Sandy Downey to any boy or girl in the Junior Class. Steve-the dash man-Snyder leaves his used track shoes to Woody. Vicky Millisor leaves her after-prom girdle to Christy Holycross, Margie Hemminger, and Vern Brown with the assumption that all three wear it simultaneously. Dave Liles and Steve Schrader leave their professional square dancing ability to Tom Bowdle and Tom Schroeder. Dave Pope wills his Big Mouth to all quiet Juniors especially Dave Patrick. Ron and Harley Stump leave their knowledge of the Kenton Parking places to Colleen Shepherd. Elaine Kloetzly wills her contact lense solution to Jim Cushwa. Rick Turner wills himself and his muscular Physique to Debra Born. Dorothy Newland wills her flat tires to Liz Bennett. Bob Saylor leaves his play directing ability to Paul Prall. Margaret Smith leaves her passionate nature to John Lowrey. Janet Griffin is going to take time off from teaching Ken Stedman Boxing Lessons and give Wayne Smith lessons on how to Pole Vault. Dan Krock receives all of Connie Stout's quarterbacking ability. Dave Horn and Phyllis Price leave their old love life to Jerry Sullivan and Cheryl Willeke in hope there's still a spark of love left. Jerry Cooper and Ken Stedman leave their wool gathering ability to Rick Jennings and you-know-who. Penny Ray and Norma Smith are going to take time off from their studies and give Ron Saylor some much-needed baseball lessons. Bill Ruble leaves his job at the I.G.A. Store to Jackie Crawford so she can get to know her future mother-in-law better. Gene Montgomery is going to sit down a few seconds and tell Wayne Bartlett all he knows about Chemistry. Wesley Randall leaves his pet cow Charlie, which he received from Iris Hesser last year, to Cathy Moore to bury because of its sudden death during experimentations. And last but not least, the Great Senior Class of 1968 regretfully leaves Bob Troyer to the entire Junior Class because he doesn't want to leave the tender loving care he has received from Mr. Taylor.

Class of "68"

STEVE KERNS, who was elected President of the United States of America in the year ninteen-hundred and eighty, has just received letters from all his old classmates, some of which were inquiring about jobs under the "Spoil System", as they are not satisfied with their present positions in life.

Since the hogs in our local area have contacted an incurable disease, caused by eating tomatoes, DAVE POPE has found his Veterinarian practice most discouraging.

JEFF KERNS, becoming discouraged in trying to explain log-rhythms to his students has recently turned to his own method of Culp-rhythms.

The President has just announced that CHRIS alias "Cookie Man" SCHRADER, has now earned a position as one of the FBI's ten most wanted criminals.

RON STUMP, with the help of his brother HARV, is working on a car that will go up, down, around, and through trees that hinder his ability to pick off pedestrians.

RICKY LEE TURNER has gone to extremes and called in the Third Reick to help conduct a search in hopes to find his engine book so he can put his clean machine back together.

After crashing 13 planes, JOHN VARNER is now teaching Sexology in the Presidents physical fitness program.

President Kerns has granted a patent to DAVE LILES for his "Dandelion Wine" after receiving a generous sample.

BOB SAYLOR, after becoming a millionaire, is now depressed after the discovery of a million dollar mistake in his books.

DON WILLIAMS and JULIA McMILLEN have been selected to write the Presidents State of the Union Address.

MARSHA DUNLAP and WESLEY RANDALL are now running their own "Hippy Dippy Psychedelic Nite Club", which has now put Mildred's Electric Malt Shop in second place in the Teen Scene.

After losing her ability to take shorthand, CONNIE STOUT is now hoping for the lead in Teen-Age Grandmother.

After marriage, BOB TROYER and HOLLY HUGHES have moved into the Old Laughlin home and changed the name to "Lamberts Lounge Lodge". Bob claims that this change in names will give him the needed inspiration for writing his poems.

After teaching Home Ec. for 10 years, KAREN BLOOM has decided to use her speaking ability to filibuster in the Senate.

ROGER GRUNDEN, the new publisher of Playboy Magazine has just hired former dental assistant JACKIE BEATTY as head model for the comic strips.

JANET GRIFFEN, whose pickel hunting has become hopeless is asking for the President's permission to join the Harlem Globetrotters.

After failing as "Pickelman" of the year, KEN STEDMAN has been appointed head cheerleader of the Globetrotters because of his mod bod.

After finishing Barber College, NANCY COLLUM and LEWIS LINSEN have become very discouraged about their amputation of 1 nose, 3 1/2 ears, and several chins. They are therefore asking for the assistance of our President for the development of an all purpose skin cream for the removing of passionate love marks about the neck.

STEVE PHILLIPS who is tired of wasting his delicate fingers in the Industrial Arts Shop, thinks he should be put in charge of the Tomato gardens at the White House.

LINDA BANTA has been unsuccessful in directing the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, would like a stab at directing the Presidents council on body building.

PENNY RAY has attained fame and fortune with her new hair style, the "Stoner" it was inspired by Karen Bloom at the 1968 Belle Center Prom.

SUPER DUPER COOPER's Fudge cycle business is surviving very well without the use of miracles.

GARY STEVENS and PHYLLIS PRICE are setting up a string of gas stations across the United States. Gary is pumping the gas while Phyllis is setting the prices.

DONNA and DAVE have found that their chain of Phillips 66 Stations does not allow enough income to pay for Dave's Custom Chevy's.

VICKY MILLISOR is sleeping mornings, setting hair in the afternoons, and giving dancing lessons nightly to prevent boredom at the Junior-Senior Prom.

PAUL JONES is making a plea to the President for the "Do Not Remove Rings" in old Kleenex boxes, so that his business of Happy Holes Inc. can survive.

DOROTHY and DAVE has given up hot rods and are now securing information from Miss Ford on the care of "Hornes".

After practicing very hard for 2 years and reaching 25 words a minute in shorthand, MARGARET is asking for the position of private secretary to the President.

BEV JOHNSON, who was kicked out of Nurses training for being secretly married, is now roaming around the Senate taking attendance and saying, "Lunches anyone."

JOHN BUTCHER, who was formerly Dean of Jumbo Teck, is taking a Scenic Tour of Viet Nam, which has recently become a peaceful place since our new President has taken over.

ELAINE KLOETZLY has asked the President to send out an all points bulletin as to the whereabouts of a Red, 1957 Chevy convertible. It was last seen in Belle Center in 1968. Why this car excites Elaine, no one knows.

DWAIN KERNS is now teaching Psychology at B.C.H.S.

JEFF BUSCHE and SANDY DOWNEY have opened Bugsies Blow Job Kleenex factory to take care of all their little A-CHOO-EEEE'S.

After trying for 10 years to teach her students to fix hard boiled eggs like Mrs. Milroy, NORMA SMITH would like to undertake the job of teaching the White House cook, BILL RUBLE, to cook without the use of his silly IBM computors.

MIKE McCARREN is making a plea to the President for a part of Kennedy Airport to turn into Mick's Mod Dragway.

After 10 years of trying to invent an electronic machine to take care of all the little fleeces STEVE SNYDER has decided to try out his musical talents in the White House.

HELEN "BARNEY" HENRY reports that business in the barnes is low, but the dancing at Skinny's is going strong.

GENE MONTGOMERY is now girls physical education instructor at Belle Center, majoring in body lifting.

STEVE SCHRADER has asked for assistance from the President to help establish "Fat Albert Clubs" throughout the United States, after being rejected from electronics school because of overweight.
